Orientations

Questions on how to use the machines, resistance bands, or free weight movements? Make sure to ask about our FREE orientation where a staff member can help find the right settings on the machines for you, explain how the equipment works, new exercises and explain the science behind each movement. A full orientation takes about 45 minutes to an hours so call in or set up an appointment while you're here.

Meet our Trainers!

At WCFF we are proud to offer the highest quality personal training available. Our qualified staff are current students at Kansas State University working towards a Kinesiology or Sports Science degree or have graduated where they have learned the latest fitness and health techniques, and can help guide you on your way to achieving health, fitness, and/or performance goals.
